

What's the Word About Rob?

"Rob brings to his ministry a power and strength that come not from any of his titles and degrees, but, rather, from his passion and personal authority. He is effective because he is believable. He is believable because he lives his faith."

"His exceptionally effective ministry and his significant imprint on the landscape of the Archdiocese are known well, and sought after. He is a true leader, deeply appreciated by those he manages, and highly respected by his peers. He is passionate about his work, thoroughly versed in his craft, and a master of his instrument. Most importantly, he brings an authenticity to his ministry that is powerful and tangible."

"Rob's work will live on in the countless lives that he has touched. He will be sorely missed for his charismatic enthusiasm, his soulful voice, his keen understanding of the Liturgy, and the Gospel, his lived commitment to social justice, his skillful leadership of singers and instrumentalists, his engaging, comfort-making way, his palpable integrity and his demonstrable love of humanity."

Jonathan Dimmock, Director of Music,
St. Ignatius Church

"I, and my fortunate parishioners, have experienced with Rob the clear difference between the run-of-the-mill song leader who essentially announces the songs, waves his hand, and sings into the microphone--- and the Animator who, by his sincere and artistic treatment of the music and his passionate connection with the assembly, truly facilitates the full participation of the worshippers".

St. Gabriel Parish. San Francisco

"Rob's subject knowledge and creative delivery made the presentation not only memorable, but thoroughly enjoyable."
